

LIONVILLE MIDDLE SCHOOL 6TH GRADE TRANSITION CAMP

PURPOSE: Transition Camp is a series of workshops designed to acquaint students with our building and procedures before the first student day, September 2, 2008. The camp is designed to help new 6th graders feel more comfortable by becoming familiar with the building, teachers, students, and develop an understanding of middle school rules and procedures. Students will experience locker relay, a bullying presentation, a puzzle scavenger hunt, a student panel discussion, and a student scheduling mystery to solve.

WHEN: Your child may register for one of the following morning or afternoon sessions.

Monday, August 11, 2008	8:15-11:00am	Monday, August 11, 2008	12:15-3:00pm
Tuesday, August 12,	8:15-11:00am	Tuesday, August 12,	12:15-3:00pm
Wednesday, August 13,	8:15-11:00am	Wednesday, August 13	12:15-3:00pm

Please note: Parents wishing to car pool, or prefer their child be in the same session with another child, should submit all registration forms in the same envelope.

COST: FREE to all incoming Lionville Middle School students.

QUESTIONS: Questions should be directed to the main office (610-524-6300).

REGISTRATION: Please complete the registration form below and mail by June 15th to Lionville Middle School Transition Camp, 550 W. Uwchlan Ave., Exton, PA 19341. You will be notified by email of the session for which you are scheduled. Preference for morning or afternoon will be honored on a first come first serve basis until that session fills.

Join us for an educational and entertaining experience!
